STORY OF CYPRİOT TARHANA SOUP

Cypriot village tarhana is an important part of the island’s traditional cuisine. This type of tarhana is produced in the villages of Cyprus. Village tarhana is handmade. Village women spend days in the summer months making Cypriot village tarhana using fresh yogurt and wheat for tarhana. This handcrafted product is one of Cyprus’s authentic flavors. Goat yogurt is usually preferred in its production.