STORY OF PEACH KEBAB

Peach kebab is made by mixing minced lamb or goat meat with parsley and spices, then wrapping it in the animal’s internal fat called terp, shaping it into meatballs, and cooking them over charcoal.

It does not contain peaches. The reason it’s called peach kebab is because its original name was Chef Ali kebab.